I am an investigator in liaison with Bernard Fensterwald, Esq., Attorney, Washington, D.C., who has, for some time, been coordinating the activities of various committees of inquiry into intelligence operations, conspiracies, attempts (thwarted and successful) to assassinate, and related matters involving the security and safety of numerous public officials and other public figures. I therefore formally request, pursuant to Title 5, United States Code, Section 552 (a) (3), and the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, that you make promptly available to me copies of the above information.

To assist you in your search, I have indicated my Social Security number, together with other pertinent information relating to the above, and date and place of birth below my signature.

As you know, the amended Act provides that if some parts of a file are exempt from release that "reasonably segregable" portions shall be provided. I therefore request, that, if you determine that some portions of the requested information are exempt, you provide me immediately with a copy of the remainder of the file. I, of course, reserve my right to appeal any such decision.

If you determine that some or all of the requested information is exempt from release, I would appreciate your advising me as to which exemption(s) you believe covers the information which you are not releasing.

I am prepared to pay costs specified in your regulations for locating the requested files and reproducing them.

As you know, the amended Act permits you to reduce or waive the fees if that "is in the public interest because furnishing the information can be considered as primarily benefiting the public." I believe that this request plainly fits that category and ask you to waive any fees.

If you have any questions regarding this request, please telephone me at the above number.

As provided for in the amended Act, I will expect to receive a reply within ten working days.

Sincerely, Gerald P. Hemming
